Junction 142 is an activity of Leura Uniting Church and the Community, located at 142 Katoomba Street, in the heart of Katoomba. Our aim is to improve the health, physical and mental wellbeing of disadvantaged, homeless and those at risk of homelessness living in the Blue Mountains.

Junction 142 provides a wide range of services, including:

- collection of donated food and clothing;
- preparation and serving hot meals to around 40 people, currently twice per week;
- free pantry items for people to take home for their use during the week;
- free shower and laundry services;
- providing clothing, personal care items and bedding to those in need;
- free locker service is available for people to store their possessions, accessible 24 hrs a day.

Welfare and social justice support is also available in a safe, welcoming and warm place where people can gather, without judgement, and be encouraged to make social connection.

Junction 142 has been instrumental in supporting people into long term accommodation working in partnership with other service providers. This has led to Junction 142 becoming the base for the 'Blue Mountains Community Support Hub' bringing together fifteen government and community services on the first Tuesday of each month. This provides a one-stop-shop for anyone in the community to access support.

Junction 142 is a local, volunteers based, not-for-profit community organisation which receives no government funding to operate, depending on donations of local individuals and businesses and occasional grants from government. All donations over $2 are tax deductible.

Our volunteers undertake a wide range of activities including collecting food, preparing meals, serving meals Tuesday, Thursday (and hopefully again on Sunday soon), cooking soup at home, collecting, sorting and distributing clothing when needed, property maintenance.... and much more.
